

Please do not change the DO NOT Call law. Since putting my name on the list I now have peace in my home. I know when my phone rings it is someone "I" want to talk to. I resent telemarketers taking up my time and energy and find their calls irritating and an invasion on my personal life. I pay for my phone and feel I should have a say in how it is used. Again, please leave the law as it stands.